It seems to be almost an impertinence for usto make a statement which seems like officiousness; but it is the truth, and when stander fills the air, it is never untimely to speak what is true."

Stambaugh was beloved by the citizens as the soldiers of his zens as well as the soldiers of his zens as well as the soldiers of his zens as a soldier and a gentleman, brave as a soldier and a gentleman brave as a soldier and a gentleman, brave as a soldier and a gentleman brave as a soldier and a gentleman, brave as a soldier and a gentleman brave as a soldier and a

News from New York indicate that there, Who came here on the stage at the election on Tuesday for Judges of the Court of Appeals resulted in an overwhelming Democratic victory— the court of the Court of Education of Education of the Court of Education of of the Court of Appeals resulted in an overwhelming Democratic victory—anywhere from fifty to seventy-five thousand majority. New York City gave a Democratic majority of about 75,000—as usual. It is hardly necessary to say that great frauds were perpetrated, as that is an old, old story, although it is as true as old. Repeaters did their usual work of voting in cere did their usual work of voting in tueir own and fictitious names. But with that they were not satisfied.—

Some of them voted in the name of negroes who had registered, and come here this senson, need not have come here this senson, need not have registered. when the latter came to vote they were arrested for trying to use the ballot twice at one election. The negroes were enabled to prove that they had not voted previously, and that had not voted previously, and that nocks and Shoshones, a friendly white men had voted in their names tribe since the battle of Bear River, and so were discharged from arrest.
